

SystemArchitect

Planned release date:

Release 6.2

November, 17th 2003

New features of SystemArchitect

- Modification of system selection in PCA
- Modified layout for phased out and delivery information in the configuration view
- Upgrade business (release I, without checking configuration rules)
- Fast access to standard solution libraries
- Power cabling and power cabling assistant

Benefits

- Harmonization of the tool handling between SYSA and PCA
- More product life cycle information while product selection
- Easy selection of options for non-orderable system
- Build complex configurations with one mouse click
- Complete automated configuration of all power consumption devices incl. UPS and power calculation

SystemArchitect

Planned release date:

Release 6.2

November, 17th 2003

New features of SystemArchitect

- Introduction of new slot types
- Extended exports: mechanical und electric planning data, slot assignment, cable connection
- Modified adapter handling, introduction of adapters with several connectors
- New functions in the cable view
- Some improvements for better handling

Update of Database

- New categories for 'storage components' and 'SPARC Based Servers' in system selection assistance

Benefits

- Improved distinguishing for slot assignment
- Improved documentation, manufacturing information
- Complete and correct consol connection
- Easier and more clearly connecting of components
- Easier handling
- More support during system selection